1. Rules for Bridge-Making Challenges

- Entry Fees: Rs 30/- per Person
- No of Participates: 1 or 2 persons allowed.
- Preparation: Candidates must bring prepared models during events.
- Materials: Usually limited to standard wooden popsicle sticks and white glue. Sometimes, paper-only bridges are constructed without adhesive.
- Dimensions: Bridges must span a specified gap (e.g., 400 mm) and often have maximum width constraints to fit testing apparatus.
- Structural Requirements:
  - No pre-made components are allowed; sticks must be used in their natural state or cut/modified by participants.
  - The bridge cannot rest on the table surface (it must span the space between two supports).
- Testing Procedures:
  - A loading device is applied to the center of the bridge, gradually increasing weight until failure.
  - The bridge must be able to support a load, such as a container of sand or metal weights.

- Winning Criteria:
  - Maximum Load: The highest total weight supported before collapse.
  - Efficiency: The highest strength-to-weight ratio (breaking load divided by bridge weight).

The Basics

- The Goal: Be the first to reach 11 points.
- The Win: You must win by 2 points (e.g., 12-10).
- The Match: Usually played as the best of 5 or 7 games.

Serving Simple

- The Toss: Toss the ball at least 6 inches straight up from an open palm.
- The Bounce: The ball must bounce on your side first, clear the net, and then bounce on their side.
- The Switch: You get 2 serves, then your opponent gets 2 serves. (At 10-10, you switch every single serve).
- The "Let": If your serve hits the net but still lands on their side, it doesn't count. Just do it again.

During the Rally

- One Bounce Only: You must let the ball bounce once on your side before hitting it back. No hitting it out of the air (volleys).
- The Net: During a rally (not the serve), if the ball hits the net and goes over, it is live—keep playing!
- Edges: If the ball hits the top edge of the table, it's in. If it hits the side of the table, it's out.
- Hands Off: Don't touch the table with your non-paddle hand while the ball is moving.

Doubles (Simplified)

- Diagonal Only: You must serve from your right box to their right box.
- Tag Team: You and your partner must take turns hitting the ball. You can't hit it twice in a row.
